Alex Blasco (“Cale”) With over 10 years of coaching experience—initially in tennis and squash—he transitioned to padel four years ago, quickly turning a new challenge into a true passion. For the past three years, he has been an integral part of Hello Padel, aligning with its core values of global growth and coach development.

Recognized for his unique communication and coaching philosophy, he serves as a Head Coach at the academy. Having closely assisted Mauri in every Bronze and Silver course across Spain, he has built a wealth of expertise, practical tools, and advanced communication skills.

His goal is straightforward: to guide other coaches through challenges, help them find their unique identity, and elevate their teaching. Coaching padel is not just about understanding the sport, but knowing how to inspire others. Join his journey to become a next-level coach with Hello Padel.
